

GERMAN: HIGHER

Why German?

The purpose of this course is to enable you to develop your ability to use German in useful and relevant contexts. The four skill areas are listening, speaking, reading and writing. In addition, the course provides you with knowledge of Germany, other German speaking countries and the customs and way of life of their people.

Since the establishment of the Single European Market in 1992, many companies require employees who are fluent in one or more European language. Higher German is therefore an extremely useful course for a variety of career paths. It is also valuable for your general education and personal development.

HOMEWORK

Homework is an essential part of the German Higher as it supports the learning in the class and allows the pupil to progress successfully to the next stage. Apart from the homework tasks given by the class teacher, all pupils are expected to memorise vocabulary, good phrases and grammar regularly at home.

Further homework guidelines can be found on the school website.

Further advice and information on these options is available from your Subject Teacher, Home Area Principal Teacher and Careers Adviser.
