Refugee CRISIS

Help Refugees

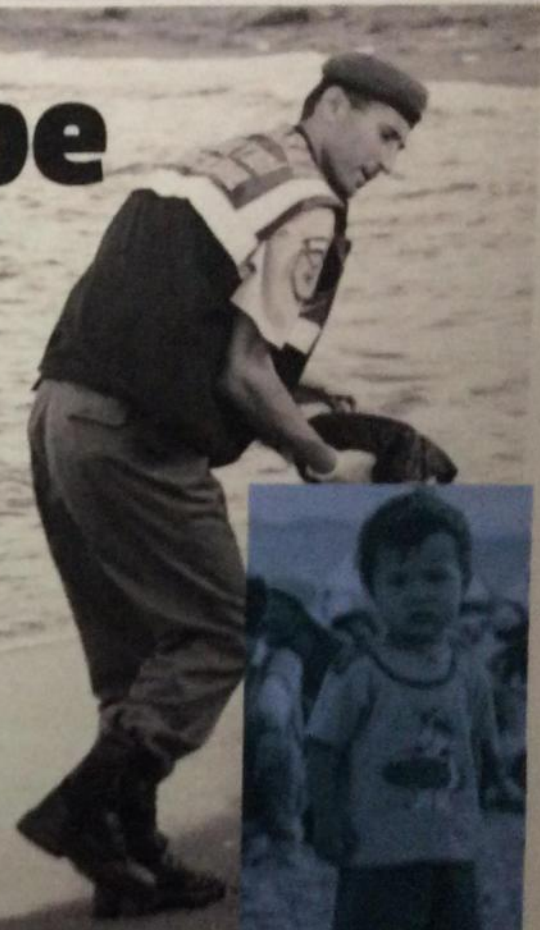

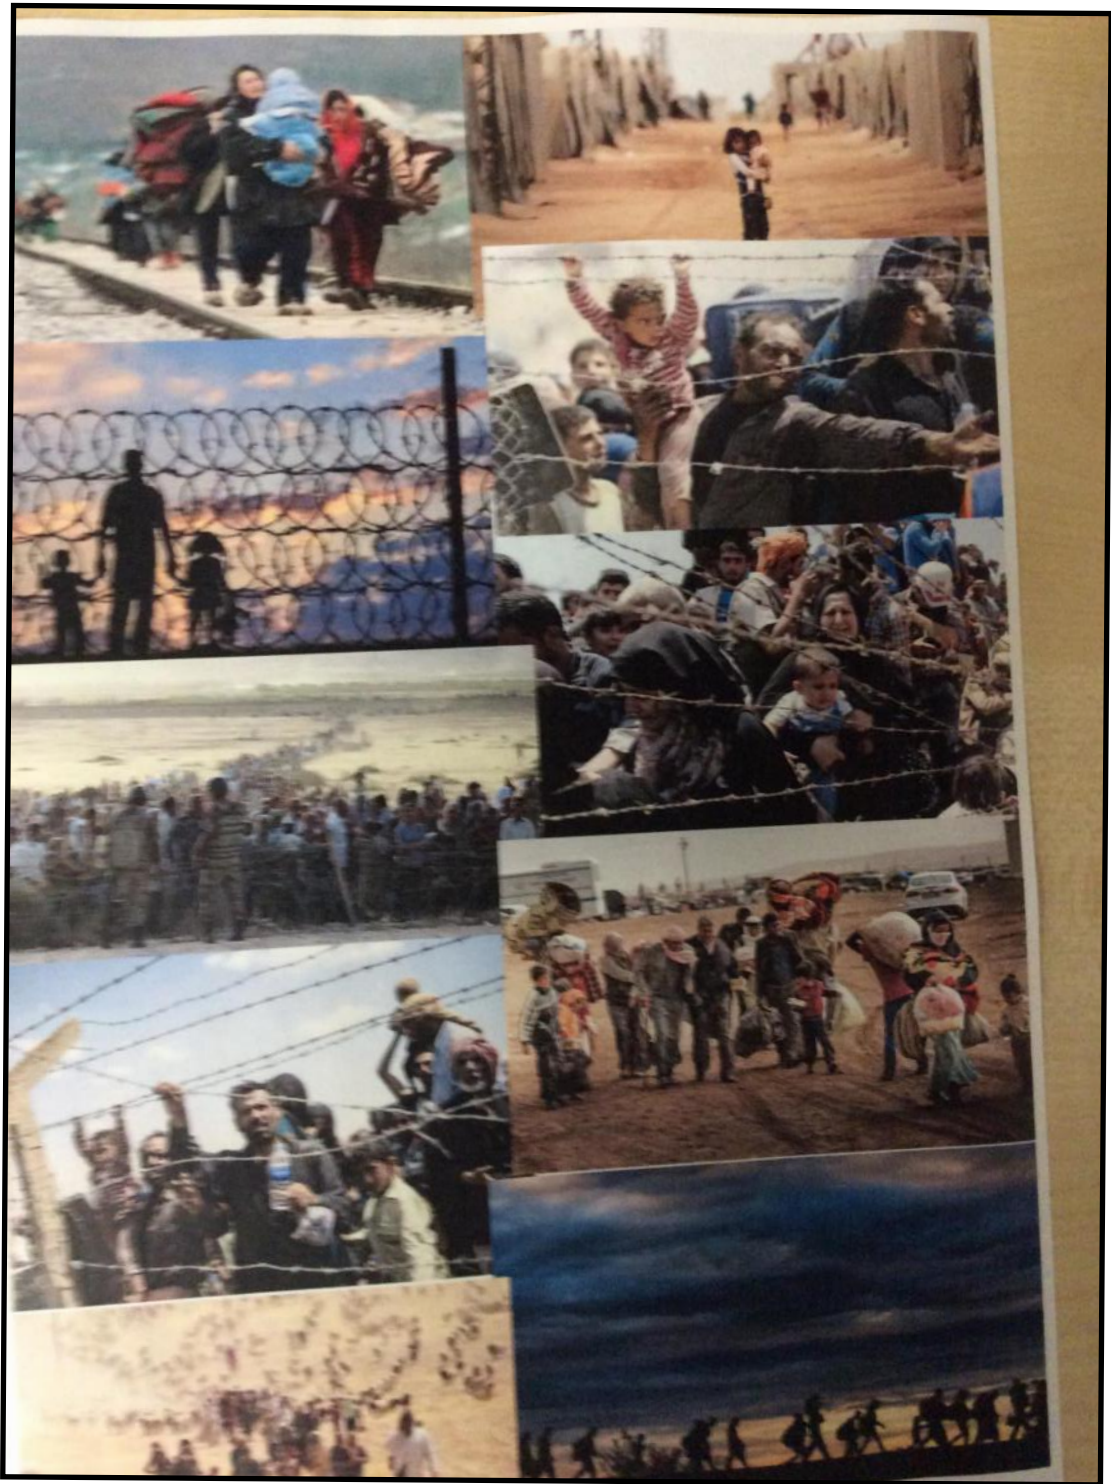

Looking for safety

Europe could not save him

In places like Iraq where there is a war, makes it harder for them to enjoy their rights. When they go to other countries to seek refuge, they get split up with their families and put into camps. This isn't giving children their rights.

Children's Rights

2. So children are treated fairly. So they are not taken advantage of. If they don't feel comfortable they can say it's a right.

1. - So they don't die - Because they should have the same rights as adults

Children's Rights

2. Because every child deserves to be raised in a safe and fair environment. Children deserve the same opportunities.

2. No one should be treated badly because of their background.

① I think that children need rights because they like everyone else, deserve a reasonable education and deserve the freedom that others may have. Having rights develops a decent future, which is what all children need to have a future and life worth living.

① Rights can lead to happiness, and happiness can help the mind develop properly. Having rights means freedom of speech. I think that it's essential for people to be able to say what they want and not be punished for it. Children's rights should be as important as every other rights.

looking for safety

Dad had to leave country
 British people were very friendly and helped ~~him~~ him Days at school not knowing anything was ~~not~~ difficult Having the sense of atmosphere that he was around people who went through the same helped him

Difficult:
 Not knowing people
 & Feeling alone.
 Not being able to speak same language

What would help
 Knowing people are in the same position ~~as~~ as you Family

- Free movement within Europe o Education - Set up infrastructure for volunteer or paid teachers to teach in migrant.
 o Water - send supplies for drinking clean water (including water filter)

LOOKING FOR SAFETY

Children Rights

3. Abusive parents
• If they are in
- eg in they want
as much as us

2. Because the children don't get hurt, or abused but are safe and happy.

1. Children needs
rights because:
- take advantage
of them (unrealistic)
- protect them
- stop abusive
behaviour

Rights

1. They cannot stand up for themselves in the wide sphere of things,
lacking the education,
money and physical power that would enable them to do so.

3. Abusive parents
• wars
• No access to education.

Childrens rights

3. Having friends
worried parents
parents can't guard it.

2. They keep us safe.

3. Poverty
Education

They deserve
every right they
get. Adults are no different to children.

1. So they can be

1. I think they need rights because they're humans &
deserve rights

1. So they can be safe
