3. Constitution/Recruitment of members	Recruiting should start in March Mr Lee suggested that office bearers post advertised in March and that this is added to the constitution in order for this to happen annually. The constitution is on the school website and may need updated for next year.
4. Headteachers Report	School Improvement Plan Mrs Dollard shared the school improvement plan and explained the reasons for the specific targets and what would be happening in school. The targets are displayed in the main entrance foyer along with the school vision and values. Me Time So far, Me Time has been gone well and children are enjoying their activities. The main focus for children is to learn how to relax and enjoy a little me time. This will be a way of children learning to look after their emotional wellbeing. Following the SAMH guidance on 5 Ways to Better wellbeing children should have opportunities to connect, be active, take notice, learn and give. We would appreciate in parent support in this. If people have skills or expertise they would like to share with groups of pupils on a Friday afternoon they would be very welcome. Community Council Meeting Senior pupils from the school went along to a local community council meeting where they shared their views about what they would like to improve about the local community. Mrs Dollard was very proud of how they conducted themselves, the clarity of how they spoke and the maturity of their feedback and engagement with the community council.

	Funky French Cafe The school are very proud of the inter-generational project happening across at the church. Mrs Faulds has been leading this and developed a programme of activities for the children to do with the senior citizens group and teaching them French. The Monkey King Mrs Dollard was also very proud to share that a group of P6s have been taking part in a mandarin project, The Monkey King, and have had the opportunity to perform this in Glasgow at the Ramshorn building. Mrs Dollard has had many professionals approach her in person and on social media about how wonderful the performance was.
