P4/5 Learning Activities

Literacy - “Hunners O Scunners” – As it was Burns’ Night on Monday, we are going to do some Scottish writing today.

1. Watch this video to listen to some Scottish dialect
<https://youtu.be/ljev0YdF0pY>
2. Have a look through the PDF file and create your own “scunner” character – the file gives you 3 steps to complete as well as lots of helpful hints and tips.
3. Have a listen to this song and see if you can recognise any Scottish words and what they should be in the original version

EXT: Create a Scottish dictionary – pick a Scottish word for each letter of the alphabet, then draw a picture and write a description of what the word means (eg. A = aye: means yes; B = braw: means lovely or beautiful; etc)

Numeracy – Addition with carrying

Choose from Mild, Spicy or Hot worksheets – if you can’t print off workshett, either write the sums with answers on paper or type them up on your computer to share your work.

EXT – Times Tables Challenge on Sumdog

Better Together

Choose a club on the Better Together teams page and create something for the festival. You will find a PowerPoint on each club channel. Read each slide carefully and add your project to the last slide. Then...get creating!
