

The Easter Story

(The Easter Story has been muddled up! Can you cut out each square and stick them into the right order?)

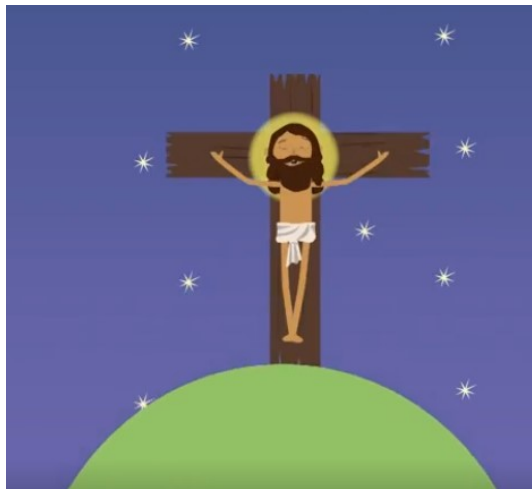

Mary arrived at the tomb and she saw that the big stone had been moved!

His friends and followers carried him down from the cross.

Mary was so happy that Jesus had risen from the dead.

Jesus was crucified on the cross.

He was put inside a tomb and a big stone was rolled across the entrance.