

Alliteration

This week we are going to look at something new, alliteration. This is when words that are close together start with the same sound, e.g. The lazy lizard was lying in the leaves. Most of the words in this sentence start with the letter 'l'.

If you are able to you can watch our short video with Miss Cunningham. This might help you understand it a little bit better.

We have attached a poster and prompt card. The card has examples of alliterative phrases, can you find the picture that they are describing in the poster?

Reading

Go to <https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk>

Then click on 'My class login' and enter your teachers name and the password: Carmondean1

We will send you an email through the Learning Journals this week with the book and comprehension questions we would like you to complete. Hope you enjoy reading your new book!

Literacy

Alliteration

Using alliteration in your writing can help draw the reader's attention to your sentence. It can make it more interesting and exciting!

Can you complete the following alliterative phrase for 'p'?
Pink pings paddling in the p...

Can you write the completed sentence in your jotter and think of two more of your own? We can't wait to see what you come up with using your imagination and creativity.