

Free Professional Development Workshop

“Intercultural Practice - taking it further”

This half day course is aimed for teachers interested and involved in international school partnerships

Venue: Scotdec, 3 Alva Street, Edinburgh EH2 4PH

Date: Wednesday 27th May 2015

Time: Registration @ 1.00pm course will run from 1.15pm to 4.00pm

In this course participants will have the opportunity to:

- Explore how the interrelated ideas of ‘identity’, ‘culture’ and ‘global awareness contribute to intercultural practice
- Reflected on their own level of intercultural fluency and the capacity in their school to support intercultural practice
- Shared good practice and experience
- identified the support available from Connecting Classrooms

Book your place at (<http://schoolsonline.britishcouncil.org/registration>)

PLEASE NOTE: It is a pre-requisite for course registration that teachers' schools are registered with a British Council Schools Online profile. If your school is not already registered, please complete the British Council Schools Online registration form before booking your place.

For any more information email: