

Living, Once Living and Non-living

Colour the living items in the picture green (e.g., animals, plants).

Colour the non-living items red (e.g., rock, sand, plastic).

Can you find any once living items in the picture? Add two once living items to the picture.

How do you know something is living?

How do you know something was once living?

How do you know something is non-living?
