

A-Z Pop Quiz

1. What A is clothing worn to protect your body in battle? _____
2. What B is a swimming stroke where you use both arms to help you move through the water? _____
3. What C is a country north of the United States? _____
4. What D is an intelligent mammal who lives in the sea? _____
5. What E is the capital city of Scotland? _____
6. What F is a building where products are made? _____
7. What G is the colour you get when you mix blue and yellow paint? _____
8. What H is a Scottish traditional food made of minced lamb, onions, oatmeal and more? _____
9. What I is the name of a house made of ice? _____
10. What J is the largest planet in the solar system? _____
11. What K is the joint which connects the thigh with your lower leg? _____
12. What L is a person who studies the law and helps people who need help to keep the law or to defend them if they have any problems with the law? _____
13. What M is an object made of iron that attracts other items which have iron? _____
14. What N is a word to describe the world around us and all that is in it such as oceans, trees and animals? _____
15. What O is the name of the 10th month in our calendar? _____