

My Skills Chart

Literacy

I can understand and interpret ideas from texts

I can use information from texts to make decisions

I can communicate ideas in my writing

I can communicate opinions in my writing

I can communicate information in my writing

I can listen to others

I can communicate ideas by talking to others

I get involved in group discussions

I can present ideas to others

I am a confident communicator

Numeracy

I can use numbers to solve problems in everyday life

I can carry out calculations

I can make decisions based on my calculations

I can solve practical problems to do with money

I can solve practical problems to do with time

I can solve practical problems to do with measurement

I can use whole numbers, fractions, and percentages

I can interpret data in tables, charts and graphs

I can draw conclusions from data

I can use data to understand the chance of events happening

Health & Wellbeing

I am responsible

I have shown that I can manage my feelings

I have a positive and active attitude to life

I can build and maintain positive relationships with others

I can plan my own learning

I can reflect and learn from experience

I am resilient

I am growing in confidence

I understand the benefits of a healthy, active life

I show respect for others

Employability, Enterprise & Citizenship

I can use ICT

I can work co-operatively and am responsible

I recognise opportunity and use initiative

I am adaptable and determined

I can discuss issues

I can meet expectations

I am creative

I am positive to change

I can be a role model for others

I am self aware

Thinking Skills

I can identify, recognise and recall facts

I can understand information

I can use information to solve a problem

I can apply knowledge to a different context

I can plan tasks based on understanding

I can judge wisely

I can review information

I can consider possible solutions

I can create new ideas

I can develop existing ideas