

Same area, different shape

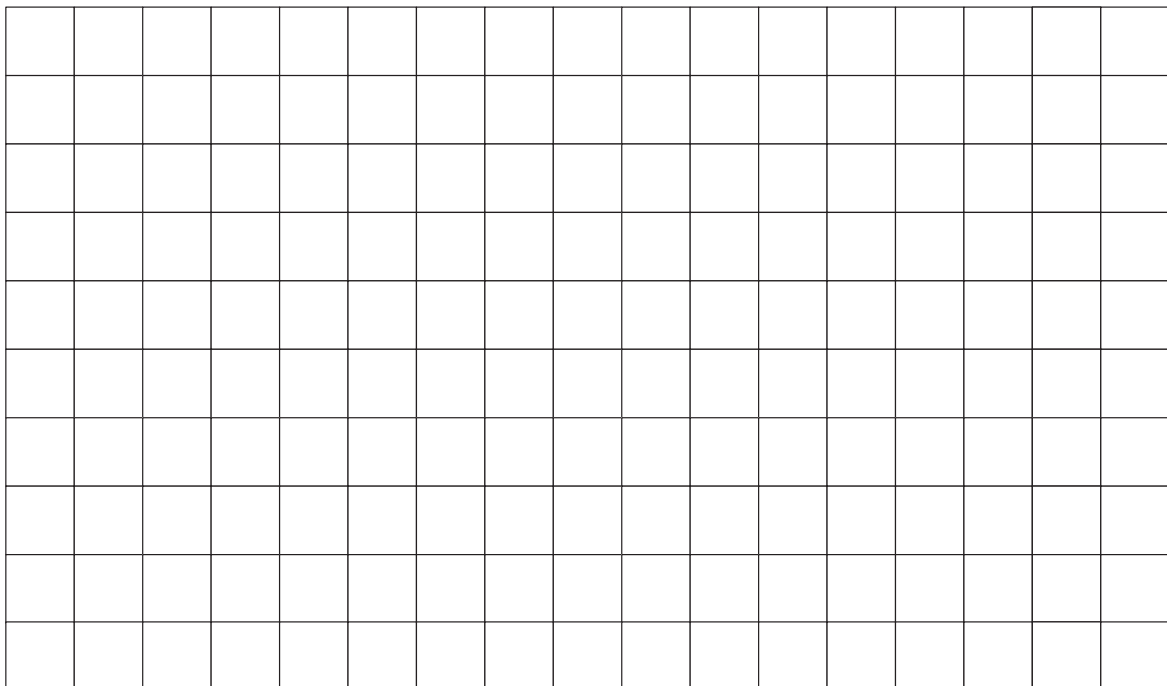

Count the squares to find the area and then colour to match the shapes that have the same area.

Be careful! There is one that does not match!

In the grid below, draw two shapes that have the same area but are different shapes.

Make one of your shapes include half squares.

I can find the area of a shape by counting squares

