

Miss Kelly's Leaving.

Miss Kelly's leaving, to start a new job

We'll all miss her dearly but we'll try not to sob.

A kind and caring person with staff and families too

But you're ready for a change, as you're off to pastures new.

Miss Kelly's leaving, can you hear them say

Anyone know how to post a nursery Sway?

Who will we ask about ICT or hackers?

We know you will miss filling in those trackers.

You share info on twitter and your tweets have gone global

A new career beckons but don't forget Froebel

You worked really hard on your project 'Risky Play'

You embraced the outdoors and also the clay.

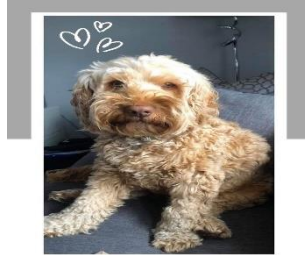

Miss Kelly's leaving, who will do the blog?

We'll miss your stories about Copper the dog.

Well done on the new job but we'll miss you all the same

Who knows the rules for that outdoor shark game?

Miss Kelly's leaving, she's on a new mission

No more Tesco orders or working on transition.

You've worked really hard and your white car is cool

Thanks to you we're a Digital School.

Miss Kelly's leaving, it's been nearly six years

We've laughed and cried together at Bathgate Early Years.

Newsletters, personal plans, you've done it all

But ELCASMs came a-calling and you answered the call.

A new career path takes real guts

Take time to relax and listen to The Snuts.

Now is the time, a new chapter to begin

Take time out too with your PT at the gym.

Working with you has been a real pleasure

BEYC memories we hope you will treasure.

We hope you won't forget us and you'll still keep in touch

Everyone in Bathgate will miss you very much.
