

Dear Ben Lomond Clan,

We are beginning to think about our clan change over for next session and we have some special news to share with you!

Ben Lomond Clan will stay all together and continue to be Ben Lomond Clan, we know you will be very excited about this! You will continue to learn at times over the week with Ben Lawers Clan. This is a moment history for us as Calderwood, as you be our first ever Primary 7 children, we cannot wait to see what you achieve!

We still haven't decided on your Champion for next session yet, but we hope to share that news with you soon!

Kind regards,
Miss Burton
