When the Trolls came to Calderwood By Rannoch

Troll Traps

The Naughty Troll

In the deep, dark night, there was a mischievous troll who tip-toed sneakily into Calderwood Primary School. He chucked rubbish in the playground, he pulled leaves off the trees, he stomped on the flowers and dumped all the furniture and toys in Leven Clan room. The troll chuckled quietly. He was a nasty, naughty troll.

In the morning, Rannoch clan entered the school and realised that the playground and Leven were messy. They got suspicious. Mrs Scobie showed the children of Rannoch clan a photo of the playground. It showed the cheeky, troll leaving rubbish in the playground. Rannoch clan were furious! Rannoch clan decided to make a troll trap. Mrs Scobie gave Rannoch clan materials to create a trap. Everyone used different materials in a different way to make the trap. Rannoch clan decided to leave the trap in their clan room overnight until the troll got trapped.

At night, the troll sneaked into the clan room and he stopped to look at the sparkly gems that were in a mysterious box on the table. There was a sign saying 'come into this box to collect sparkly gems'. His eyes sparkled in amazement. He called his buddies over to steal the shiny, jewels. The troll crept, greedily into the box. SLAM! The box slammed down and captured the troll.

In the morning, Rannoch clan came into the clan room to see if they had captured the troll. They found the troll in the box and they squealed with happiness. They were surprised to find another two trolls in the other traps. Rannoch clan took them far away from Calderwood to release them. Hopefully the trolls will not return but Rannoch clan have kept their traps just in case!
