Celebrating Book Week at Home

- If you have any books you would like to donate to Calderwood Primary School, please bring these in during Book Week. We would love to build our libraries in our clans and around the school!
- Vote for your favourite fiction animal here!
- Crazy Calderwood: post a photograph on your Seesaw or Teams of you reading in the most adventurous place!

Sharing the Learning Event @Calderwood

Friday 18th November

We are hosting our first sharing the learning event in Calderwood Primary School from 11:00am-11:50am.

- One adult per family to keep in line with health and safety
- Come anytime between 11:00-11:30am
- The event will finish at 11:50am
- Drop in to the clans that your child/children are in
- Enter and exit the school through the playground
- Ben Lomond will share their learning from 11:30-11:50am due to their leadership commitments around the school
- We understand that it is difficult, however, if possible, we would ask that younger siblings are not brought along to this event
- Feel free to dress up as a book character and join in the celebrations!

P1-P3 clans!

Primary 1 clans will share their Book Bug Bags during this time.

Primary 2-3 clans will share their Read, Write, Count bags during this time.

The pupils will take their bags home.

P4-P7 Clans!

The Primary 4-7 clans will share their interdisciplinary learning which has focused around the concept of Book Week Scotland.
