

Martin Luther King

Date of birth: January 15, 1929

Date of death: April 4, 1968

Martin Luther King is significant because he was the leader in the African-American Civil Rights movement. He is famous for his 'I Have a Dream' speech, which was during a march in Washington, in 1963.

A picture of Martin Luther King

Interesting Fact

Martin Luther King received the Nobel Peace Prize, for battling racial equality through nonviolence, on October 14th 1964.