

This week we are going to look at Judaism.

I have given you a Power Point with the Jewish version of the Creation Story.

I want you to research the following and present it in a word document (with pictures if possible), a Power Point with pictures or a written piece from your jotter. You should have headings and subheadings and always remember your core writing targets.

- Religious building
- Holy book
- Festivals and/or celebrations (weekly holy day)
- Important people
- Beliefs

I am obviously looking for as much information and detail as possible.

The purpose of this task is to inform others who have no or little knowledge of the Jewish religion. Please put your finished piece in my completed work folder. I have added a copy of your core targets and Informative writing targets. Please use them.
