

What makes a good father?

Christians often talk about God as “Our Father,” and you might have heard this being said in prayers too. Why do people call him our father?

Christians believe that God is the father to all people in the world because he created the world.

Task

Take a few minutes to have a think about what makes a good father?

- Someone who listen to me.
- Someone who talks to me.
- Someone who plays games with me.
- Someone who protects me and keeps me safe.
- Someone who looks after me.
- Someone who loves me.
- Someone who is kind and caring.
- Someone who takes me places.
- Someone who provides for me and feeds me.

Can you think of any more things that would make a good father?
Keep thinking of all of the things God did in the stories.

Record your answers on the attached sheet all around the picture of God or draw a picture of God in your jotter and write your answers around it.

Name.....

Date.....

What Makes a Good Father?

