

Select 3 or more tasks to complete from the list below. Please complete the tasks to the very best of your ability, ensuring you answer in sentences and have used correct punctuation.

1. INFERENCE: What do you think the phrase 'A picture is worth a thousand words' means? Why do you think this?
2. PRIOR KNOWLEDGE: List the names of the superheroes you can see in the image. Make a fact file or poster about one of them.
3. INFERENCE: What do you think the message the creator of the image is trying to convey? Why do you think this?
4. INFERENCE/PRIOR KNOWLEDGE: Can you create a title for the image? Explain why you have chosen this title.
5. VISUALISATION: Using the 'NHS Comprehension Q5 image' resource, add speech bubbles or thought clouds to the image.
6. METALINGUISTICS: Create a list or mind map of the different emotion words that you can think of when you see this image.

NHS Comprehension Task
Week beginning 27th April

Image from @TheLiteracyShed

7. VISUALISATION: Create a short cartoon strip or storyboard of the image, showing how it could come to life.
8. VISUALISATION: Using action figures, Lego models, hand drawn puppets create a short film showing your appreciation for the NHS.
9. VISUALISATION: Draw a picture of your own version of an NHS superhero.
10. VISUALISATION: Draw your own version of this image. Remember to add colour if you can!