

Goldilocks and the three bears

One day, three bears made porridge and while it was cooling, they went for a walk. A little girl called Goldilocks came and she tasted the porridge before eating the little bowl. She sat on the chairs and broke the little one. Then she tried all of the beds and fell asleep on the little one. The bears came back and found Goldilocks who ran away.