

Speech Marks Assignment 3

Learning Intention:

We are learning to use speech marks accurately in our writing.

Success Criteria: We will...

- Make sure the words within the speech marks are only words being spoken
- Use the correct punctuation – “ A .”
- Identify who is speaking e.g. “Good morning!” said Mrs Fairley.
- Begin to use words other than ‘said’ e.g. shouted, exclaimed, shrieked

Written Tasks:

1. Make sure you have completed the tasks from our first and second speech marks assignment. It will help you to complete this one.
2. Complete Spot The Missing Speech Marks worksheet.
3. Complete the Comic Strip Speech Worksheet
4. Use one character from the Comic Strip Speech Worksheet as inspiration for a short story. In this story you should use speech marks correctly and try to use words more exciting than said. You can use the Said Synonyms Word Mat to help you. Use the Success Criteria to self-assess your writing. Have you achieved them all?

Next Steps:

Next week you will be completing a recount which should include direct speech.
