Sunday is a special day for Christians.

Many Christians go to church.

They go to church to worship God.

What happens in church?

They pray to God.

They listen to stories from the Bible.

they use a blind man sitting by

They sing songs to God.

They share the bread and wine.

They light candles.

They give money to help others.

What do you see in a church?

There is a cross.

There is a special table called the altar.

There are flowers and candles.

There are special seats called pews.

There are statues of holy people.

The priest or vicar wears special clothes.

Some churches have organs.

Some churches have stained glass windows.

Can you think of anything else that might happen in church on Sunday?
