

What Happens in a Church On a Sunday?

Christians go to church on a Sunday to worship G..... They p.....to God to ask him to help them or forgive them. The people attending the church are called the congregation and they might sing Christian songs called H..... There is often a c....., where people give money to help others. There may be a reading from the B..... and the M..... will give a moral talk. You might hear O..... music too.

Children might go to a Sunday S..... where they listen to bible stories, do some art and craft, and sing songs.
