

What Am I?

Vegetables

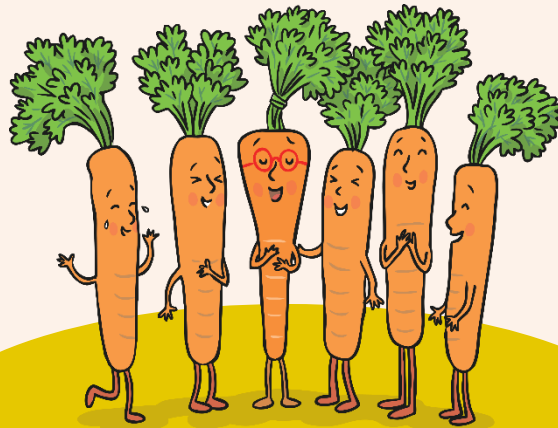

What Am I?

Can you follow the clues to work out which vegetable is being described?

Click on the sunshine to reveal each clue!

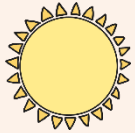

Let's begin

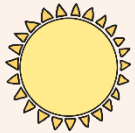

What Am I?

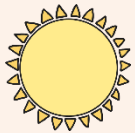

I grow underground
in the soil.

I have bushy green
leaves that grow
above the ground.

You can cook me or eat me raw.

I am orange in colour.

Click on me
to reveal the answer.

Previous

I am a carrot!

Next

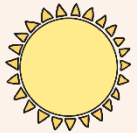

What Am I?

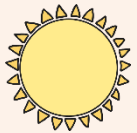

I am green.

I have a stalk and a large bushy head.

I look a bit like a small tree!

I also look a bit like green cauliflower.

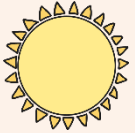

Click on me to reveal the answer.

Previous

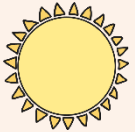

Next

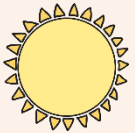

What Am I?

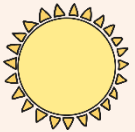

I grow under the ground.

I am often round.

I can be roasted, mashed, baked and boiled.

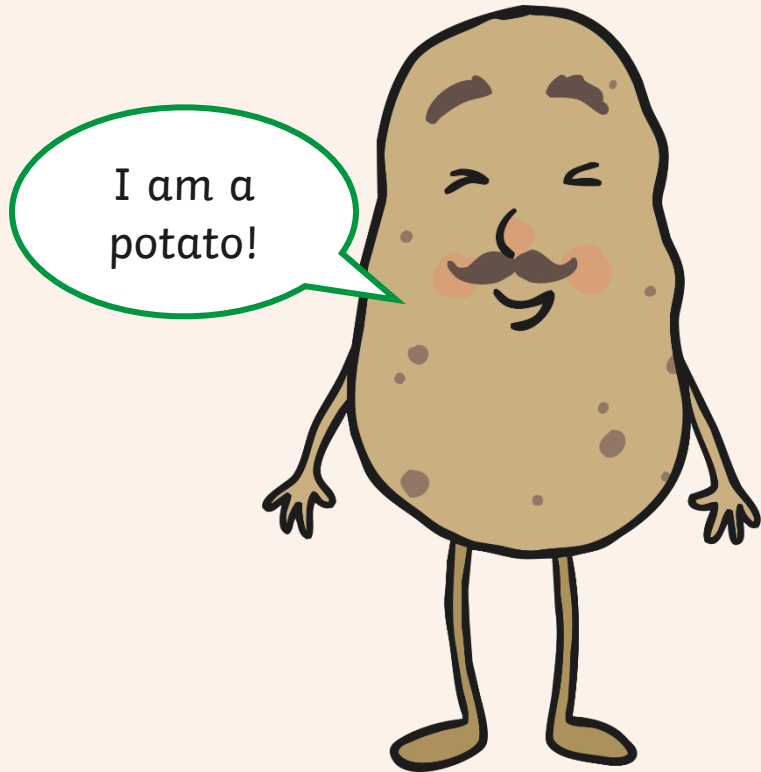

I am used to make chips and crisps.

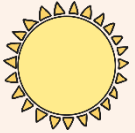

Click on me
to reveal
the answer.

Previous

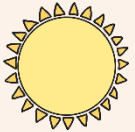

Next

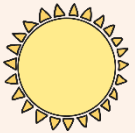

What Am I?

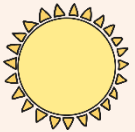

I grow under the ground.

I am round in shape.

I have a strong smell.

I might make you cry when you chop me up!

Click on me to reveal the answer.

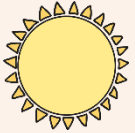

Previous

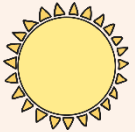

I am an onion!

Next

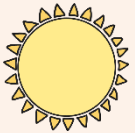

What Am I?

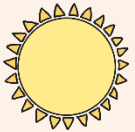

I look a bit like a mini cabbage!

I am small and round.

I have lots of layers of small green leaves.

Lots of people eat me at Christmastime.

Click on me to reveal the answer.

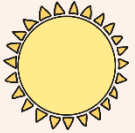

Previous

I am a Brussels sprout!

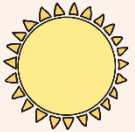

Next

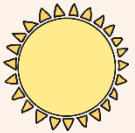

What Am I?

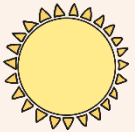

I grow under the ground.

I look a bit like a carrot.

I have bushy green leaves that grow above the ground.

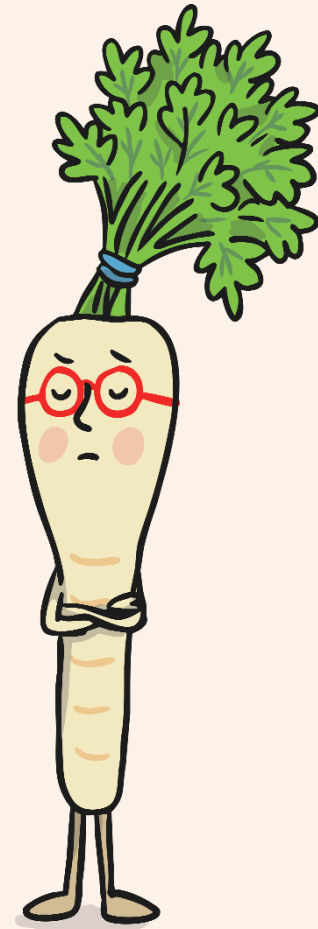

I am a cream colour.

Click on me
to reveal
the answer.

Previous

I am a
parsnip!

Finish

twinkl

