

Scottish Book Week at Harrysmuir

While Book Week Scotland takes place starting 16th November we are extending ours to a Book fortnight so we can fit in some fabulous activities as well as focus on National Anti-Bullying Week.

- ❖ We will be gifting our P1 Bookbug and P2/3 Read Write Count Bags at Celebration parties W/C 23rd November. While we are sad that we cannot invite Parents/Carers as we normally would we will still be able to celebrate in style in our classes (and there may even be juice and cake 😊) Look out for the bags coming home and please share photos of you enjoying them with your child on our Blog or Twitter page.
- ❖ P4-7 have a Reading challenge calendar to complete and we look forward to them sharing their Reading fun on their TEAMS pages as well as participating in some book related fun in class.
- ❖ Family Challenge- Where is the most extreme place your family have ever read a book? Whether it is up a tree, on top of a mountain or stood on your heads, we want your photos! Your homework challenge is to take a picture of your family reading somewhere extreme and bring in a photo, email the photo to school (w/harrysmuir-ps@westlothian.org.uk) or post it on our Twitter page @HarrysmuirPS

Happy Reading!
