

LITERACY!

Re-read your book on Active Learn out loud. Can you spot any of your Fry's words in your book?

We are going to continue our instruction writing. This week, I would like you to write instructions for crossing the road. Watch this video to remind yourself how to cross the road safely:

Try to start each sentence with the word first, next, then and finally like I have done in this example:

Remember to number your instructions and to use capital letters, full stops and finger spaces!

NUMERACY!

I have set you a challenge on Sumdog! You have until tomorrow to complete it.

Watch this video to remind yourself about division and equal sharing:

Name 3 ways you found out about toys from the past.
