Find out about some animals that hibernate for winter.

Choose one and write about what they do to prepare and how long it lasts.

What kind of superhero would you like to be? Draw a picture and write about how you could help save the world.

Keep a weather diary for the month of November.

What was your favourite weather day and why?

Who would you most like to meet?

Write a list of questions you would like to ask if you ever did meet them.

Learn how to do Sudoku. Mrs Sansom has a bundle of puzzles for you to have a go at - just ask if you want to try them.

Find out about the River Almond that flows through Livingston. Here are some questions to get you started.

Where does it start/end?
How long is it?
What wildlife can be found?

Practise your 8 times table until you know it thoroughly (up to 12×8).

How fast can you say it—the whole thing, not just the stations?

Can you beat your parents?

Show an adult how to do long multiplication of a 3 digit number by a 2 digit number.

Do they do it the same way as you?

Write some questions for you both to try, who is faster?

Make a poster to show some of the things you have learned in French.

Or you can show off something new you learned by yourself.

E.g. *greetings/basic conversation

*days/months *family

*emotions

Make a poster to show what you know about fractions. You could include:

- what the numbers mean
- illustrations -example questions
- equivalent fractions
- the link with decimals and percentages

Try some origami. There are lots of websites with good tutorials. You just need some paper.

Hint: make your folds really precise and make them sharp by running your fingernail along them.

Talk to an adult in your family about their job.

What do they do? Did they need any qualifications? What do they like/dislike about it? Are there any particular skills they need?
