

Friday 24th April – Miss Clark P2/3

Story Time

Well done for working hard and getting through another week of home learning! Have a break and pick one of Andy's Prehistoric Adventures to watch. Remember and sing along to the intro music!

Reading

Using one of the reading books from your home learning pack or using one of your own books, can you draw a picture of your favourite characters in the story and write 3 reasons why you like that character?

Remember that it is important to do daily reading to continue to develop your fluency, expression and confidence as a reader. It is also good to discuss the books you are reading with a family member. I have attached 'Bloom's' Question cards that give lots of different questions to think about and discuss. Each type of question is colour coded so you can make it fun by putting coloured cubes or counters in a bag and have a go at picking one out to match one of the flower question cards!

News

I'm sure you have had a busy week! Can you share your news with a family member or write a few sentences in your home learning jotter to say what you have been getting up to!
