

My social story about a virus

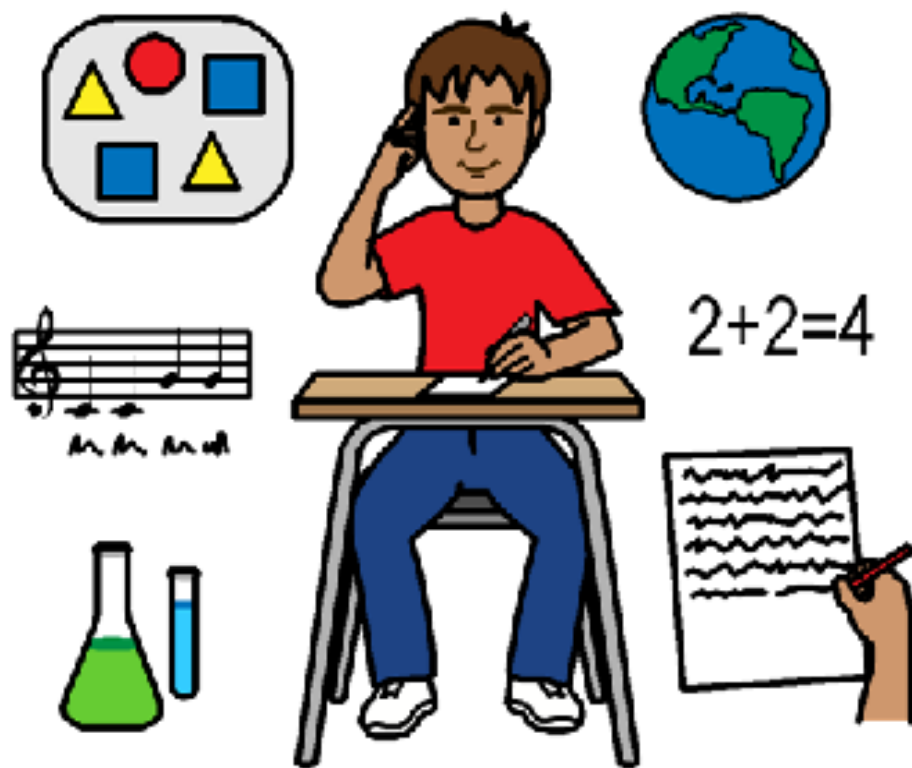

home

The virus means I must stay at home.

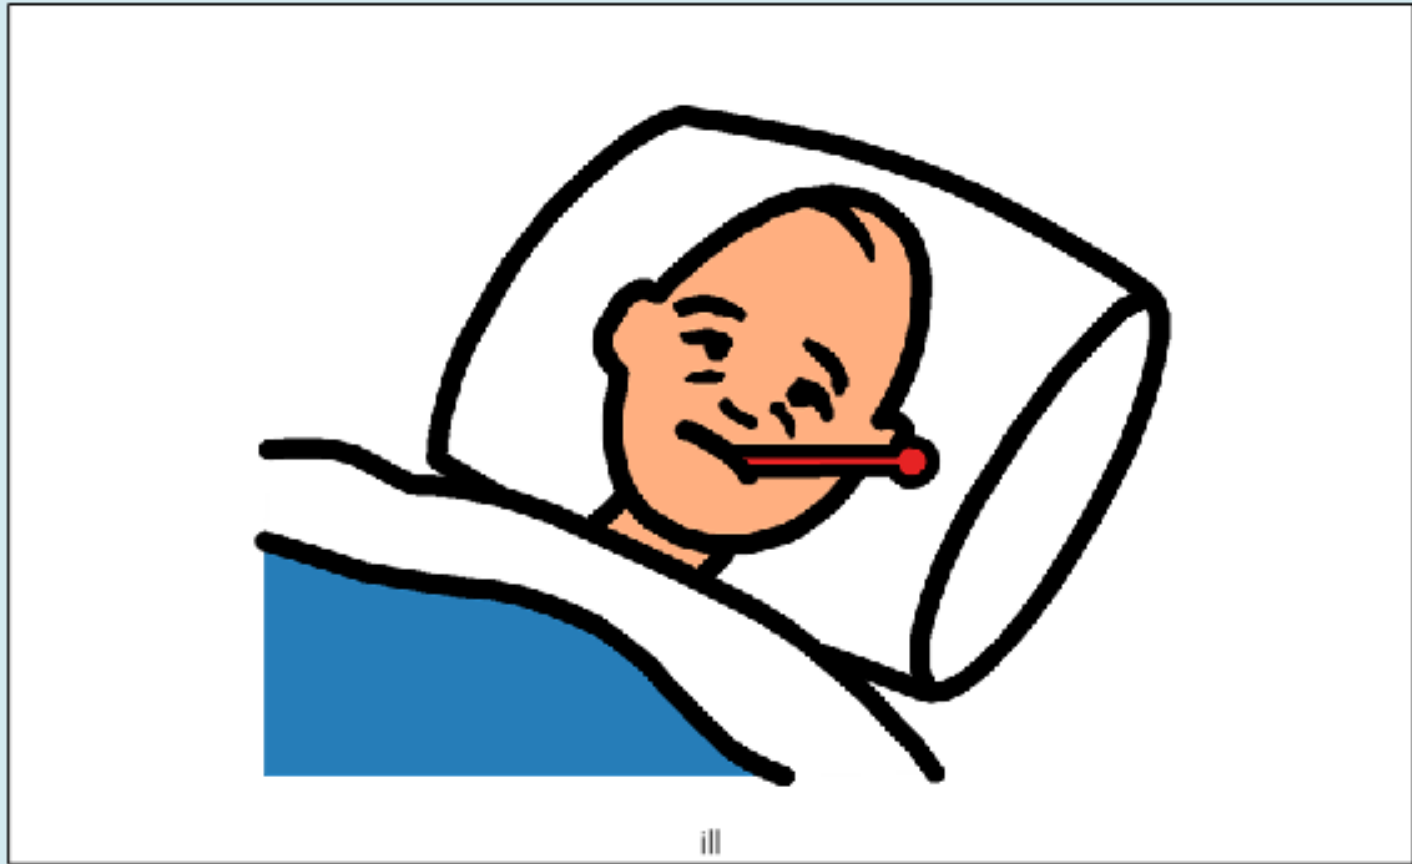

I will not come to school

learning

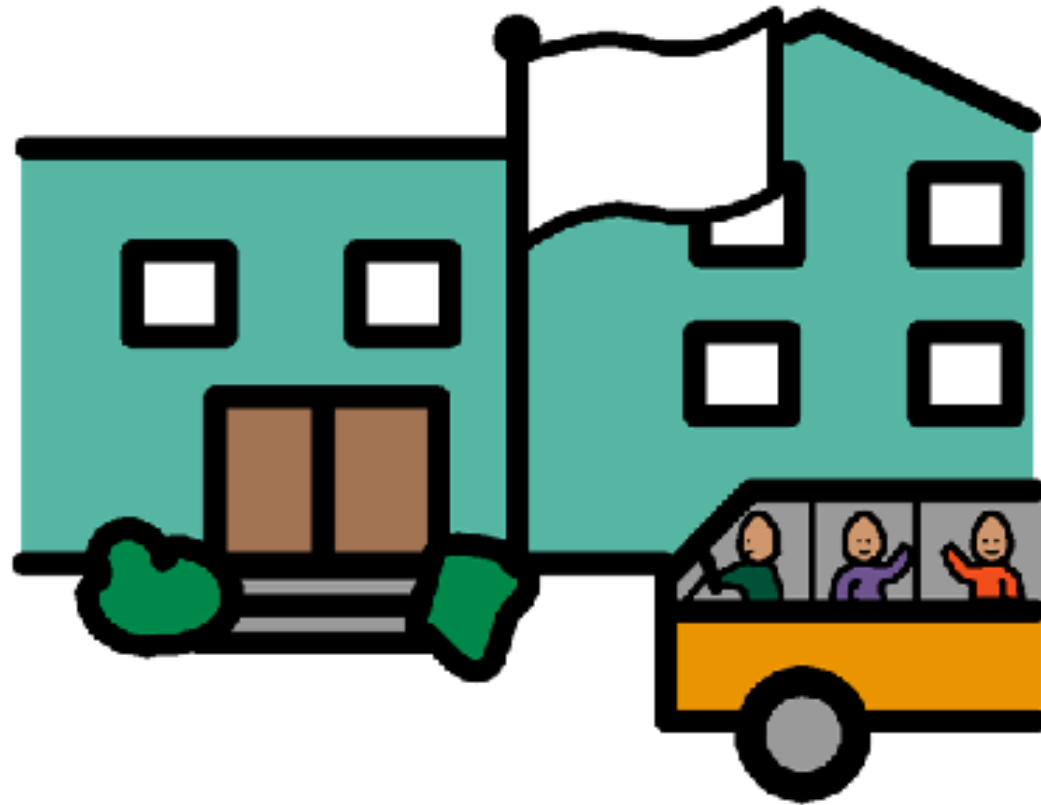

My teachers will send home learning for me.

ill

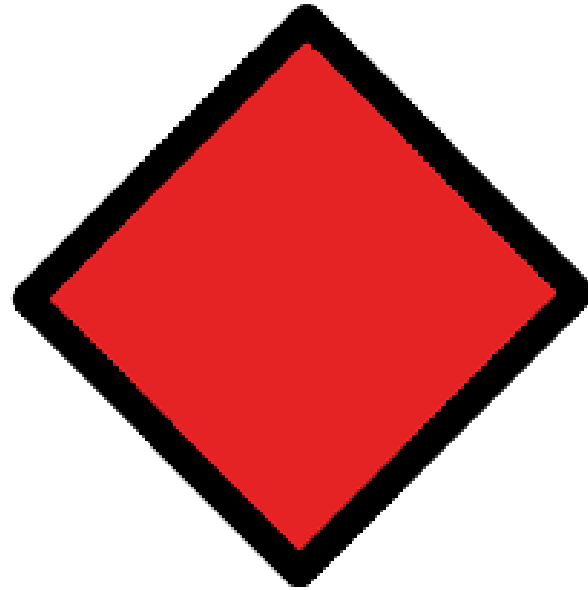

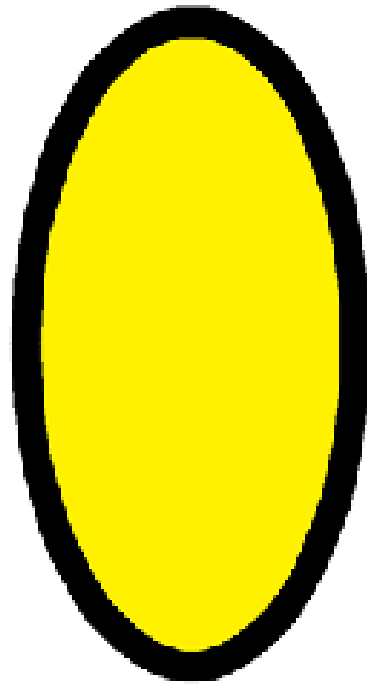

The virus can make people ill.

school

I will come back to school when the virus goes away.

different

It will be different for me