

Chapter 7

Money up to £20

Remember

£1 and £2 coins are used in everyday purchases.

These are also used :-

a £5 note is worth the same as FIVE pound coins

a £10 note is worth the same as TWO £5 notes

a £20 note is worth the same as TWO £10 notes

Money

Be able to change money up to £20

Exercise 1

- How many £1 coins will I get for :-
 - two £5 notes
 - three £5 notes
 - one £5 note and a £10 note
 - four £2 coins
 - one £5 and three £2 coins
 - one £5, one £10 and two £2 coins ?
- How many £5 notes will I get for :-
 - two £10 notes
 - one £10 and five £1 coins
 - ten £2 coins
 - one £10 and five £2 coins ?
- Write down how much each person has :-
 - Tony
 - Sean

3. c Jenna

d Lenny

Kara buys a magazine costing £18.29.

She gives the shopkeeper the exact money as shown.

There are many different ways of giving the exact money when buying something.

- Look at how much Kara gave the shopkeeper. Write down other ways she could have paid exactly.
- Write down the coins that you could pay exactly for :-
 - £7.77
 - £10.53
 - £11.94
 - £18.91
 - £19.05
 - £14.87
 - £15.55
 - £19.99.
- Harry gave the shopkeeper a £5 note to pay for his £4.12 cake.
 - How much change should he get ?
 - Give an example of what notes and coins might make up his change.

7.

May's mum handed over a £10 note for her £6.79 scarf.

- How much change should she get ?
- Give an example of what notes and coins might make up her change.