

The main focus for learning this term will be:

Literacy

Listening and Talking

- Communicating with others in a group
- Performing Scots poems to an audience
- Giving feedback to others

Writing

- Forming taught letters and sounds
- Writing common words
- Writing words featuring known letter sounds
- Labelling pictures and maps
- Writing descriptions using colours etc.
- Writing sentences using “and”

Reading

- Blending letter sounds to read short words.
- Reading common words
- Finding evidence/information in text to answer questions
- Linking texts to own experiences/knowledge
- Discussing the feelings of characters

Numeracy

- Number Processes: Addition and subtraction within 10, numbers to 30, ordering numbers
- Position and Movement: Using positional language (forward, backwards, left, right) to describe a journey/route
- Measure: Exploring length, capacity and weight
- Symmetry: Recognising and creating symmetrical pictures and patterns

Health and Wellbeing

- Internet Safety
- Healthy Eating
- Oral Healthy

Physical Education

- Bat and ball skills and dance

Interdisciplinary Learning: Literacy/Social Studies/Science

- Explore features of our local environment
- Learn about the language of position and directions
- Writing facts
- Talking about settings in a story
- Points on a compass
- What living things need and how plants grow
- Creating texts to show what I have learned

Scots Focus (Social Studies/Literacy/Expressive Arts)

- Learning new Scots language
- Performing a poem to others
- Mixing colours to create “Robin Reidbreist” and storm picture (Katie Morag and the Tiresome Ted)
- Designing their favourite dinner using different materials (link to Mince and Tatties poem)
- Talking about a famous Scot, Mairi Hedderwick and character, Katie Morag

PUSCPS – LEARNING OVERVIEW

P1– Term 3 (January - March)

Discrete subjects

Expressive Arts

- Music: Singing Scottish Songs and exploring beat and rhythm

Religious and Moral Education

- Festivals of food

Opportunities for personal achievement and involvement in the ethos and life of the school

- Taking part in the Scottish Assembly and Easter Service in front an audience
- Contributing to the 'Pumphie Pals' Group, working with children of different stages to take our school forward

Other information

Parents Evening appointments will take place this term on the 21st and 22nd March. Information regarding appointment times will be sent nearer the time.

Many thanks,

Mrs Strachan and Miss McLennan