Home Learning Choice Board

My interdisciplinary context for learning is The Twits.

Use the choices below to decide what home learning tasks you would like your child to take part in. It is up to families as to how many activities they complete. Please date if completed.

My weekly reading homework is in my reading record.

Across Learning

Play Sumdog to sharpen your mental maths strategies.

Challenge yourself to read different books at home. Tell your adult about the story, where is the story set? Who are the characters? Can you write a different ending?

Go for a walk in the park/ forest with an adult. Use your senses to talk about what you can see, hear, smell and feel.

Collect some leaves and make an autumn picture.

Practise counting forwards and backwards from different numbers. Can you write the numbers?

Practise your sounds we have been learning in class. Write some words that have the sounds in them, then put them into sentences. Remember capital letters and full stops!

Help an adult in your home. Can you set the table? Can you make your bed?

Can you make a list of all the animals that hibernate in winter. Use books and ICT to help you.

Practise adding and subtracting to 10/20/30 and beyond

Go on a noun hunt! Write a list of the different nouns you can find in your home.

Can you pack your bag independently for school? Remember you need your reading folder and diary every day.

Look at our learning on our school blog and leave a comment.

Ask me

1. What was the best thing that happened at school today?
2. Tell me something that made you laugh today.
3. Tell me a new word that you heard today.
4. If I called your teacher tonight, what would they tell me about you?
5. How did you help somebody today?
6. Tell me one thing that you learned today.
7. Tell me about three different times you used your pencil today at school.
8. What was the most popular game at break/lunch time?

Sharing your homework:

- Use your homework jotter.
- Ask an adult to tweet the school a photo to @PUSPCS or email a photo to wlpuspcs@westlothian.org.uk
- P5-7 can upload to their Didbook Enrichment Diary.
