Across Learning

Play Sumdog to sharpen your mental maths strategies.

Challenge yourself to read a type of book you haven't read before. Tell an adult three facts about what you have read.

Go for a walk in the park/ forest with an adult. Use your senses to talk about what you can see, hear, smell and touch.

Use books or ICT to research and make a list of animals that hibernate in winter.

Make a game or find a strategy to help you to learn your times tables.

How many adjectives can you find to describe the seasonal changes that are taking place outside?

Help an adult at dinner time each night for a week.

Collect some leaves and make an autumn picture. Look at Andy Goldsworthy for inspiration.

Practise addition and subtraction facts within 10/20 or beyond.

Practise your spelling words using the activity grid in your homework jotter.

Create a poster to remind people when and how to wash their hands to prevent the spread of germs.

Look at the learning Sways and posts on our school blog and leave a comment.
