Primary 6 Term 2

Home Learning Choice Board

My interdisciplinary context for learning is 'A Series of Unfortunate Events' by Lemony Snicket.

Use the choices below to decide what home learning tasks you would like your child to take part in. It is up to families as to how many activities they complete. Please date if completed.

My weekly reading homework is in my reading record.

ACROSS Learning

Play Sumdog to sharpen your mental maths strategies. 	Add an entry to your Reading Passport. Share something you have read and rate it.	Log in to Didbook and ensure your profile is completed/up-to-date.	Listen to a chosen piece of music and discuss how it makes you feel/ what it makes you think about.
Practise chosen times tables. Remember to practise related division facts.	Find any information you can about Lemony Snicket (e.g. other books, his life). Choose how to share this information.	Check in with someone at home – have a discussion about how you/they are feeling.	Choose a simple recipe to try at home with your family.
Find examples of real-life maths (e.g. measure at home or finding change).	Have a discussion about an item in the news with someone at home (e.g. using a news app, Newsround).	Tidy your room each week.	Look at our learning on our school blog and leave a comment.

Ask me

1. What was the best thing that happened at school today?
2. Tell me something that made you laugh today.
3. Tell me a new word that you heard today.
4. If I called your teacher tonight, what would they tell me about you?
5. How did you help somebody today?
6. Tell me one thing that you learned today.
7. Tell me about three different times you used your pencil today at school.
8. What was the most popular game at break/lunch time?

Sharing your homework:

- Use your homework jotter.
- Ask an adult to tweet the school a photo to @PUSCPS or email a photo to wlpuspcs@westlothian.org.uk
- P5-7 can upload to their Didbook Enrichment Diary.
