Primary 5 Term 3

Home Learning Choice Board

My interdisciplinary context for learning is Charles Rennie MacIntosh and forces.

Use the choices below to decide what home learning tasks you would like your child to take part in. It is up to families as to how many activities they complete. Please date if completed.

My weekly reading homework is in my homework diary.

Across Learning

Play Sumdog to practise your maths skills over a range of areas.

Pick a novel from the class library and read it for pleasure at home.

Practise making your bed – are you able to put a quilt cover on?

Look for Charles Rennie MacIntosh's designs while you are out and about and write in your homework where you have seen them.

Practise your times tables using the different strategies you have learned in class.

In your reading book can you find examples of alliteration and similes?

We are learning about the Eat well guide. Can you create a healthy sandwich which includes most food groups?

Can you find anything which is magnetic? What does it do?

Look for fractions, decimal numbers and percentages while you are out shopping.

Write a poem about what you can see outside your window in the Winter.

Practise the dances you have been learning in Scottish Country dancing at home!

When you are in the bath carry out some serious science research! What happens when you press down on an object that is in the water?

Ask me

1. What was the best thing that happened at school today?
2. Tell me something that made you laugh today.
3. Tell me a new word that you heard today.
4. If I called your teacher tonight, what would they tell me about you?
5. How did you help somebody today?
6. Tell me one thing that you learned today.
7. Tell me about three different times you used your pencil today at school.
8. What was the most popular game at break/lunch time?

Sharing your homework:

- Use your homework jotter.
- Ask an adult to tweet the school a photo to @PUSCPS or email a photo to wlpuspcs@westlothian.org.uk
- P5-7 can upload to their Didbook Enrichment Diary.
