

Your task was to think of 6 words which describe how August was feeling on his visit to his new school.

There are no right or wrong answers to this task as long as you can justify why you have chosen the words you have listed.

Here are some describing words which describe how August might have felt on his visit to the school:-

nervous

frightened

shy

anxious

embarrassed

scared

worried

excited

petrified

insecure

vulnerable

happy

