

Literacy

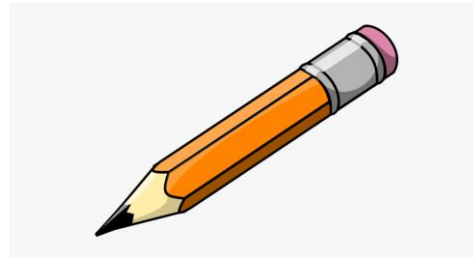

Writing – Writer’s Craft, part 3 (of 3)

- ▶ You will need:
Sharp pencil, paper and someone to help you read through the lesson.

- ▶ Follow the lesson plan or skip to slide 6.

Literacy

Writing – Writer’s Craft, part 3 (of 3)

▶ Learning Intention (LI):

to continue writing a story.

▶ Success Criteria (SC):

I can continue the setting.

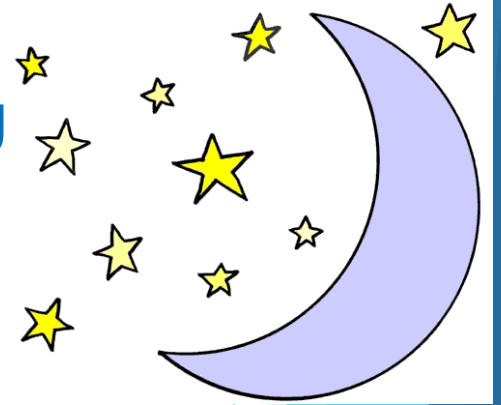

I can continue with the same characters.

I can continue with the same timings.

Warm Up – Story starter

- Activity – Alan and Amy are still on holiday

Read the text and answer the questions:

On the last night of their holiday, Alan and Amy crept out of their bed and, in the darkness, opened the curtains of the caravan window...

Warm Up – What next?

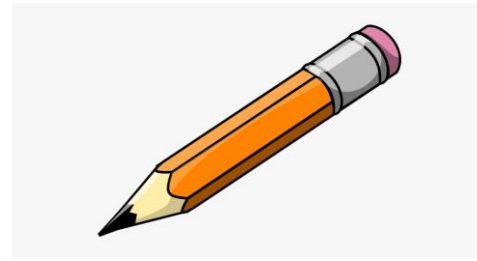

- Who are the characters?
- Where are they?
- What time of day is it?
- What has happened so far?

- Tell someone what you think might happen next.

Writer's Craft

When we continue a story, we have to check it make sense.

Is the character a boy – he/him/his

Is the character a girl – she/her

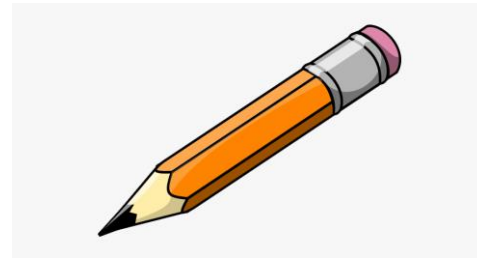

Is it daytime or night time? Is it winter or spring?

Is it a scary story or a funny story?

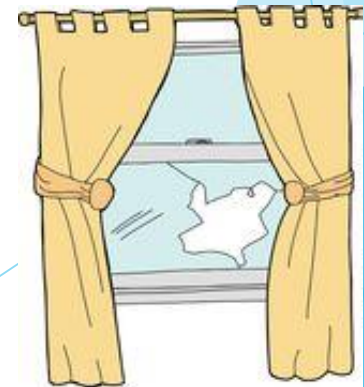

Writer's Craft

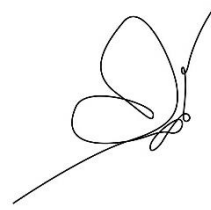

- Activity: Continue this story starter about Alan and Amy.
Option 1: Draw a picture to show what happens next.
Option 2: Draw a picture to show what happens next and explain your answer to someone.
Option 3: Draw what happens next. Copy the starter sentence and write what happens next. Explain your answer to someone.

Ideas:

Assessment and Plenary

► Think:

Did you manage to draw what might happen next with Alan and Amy?

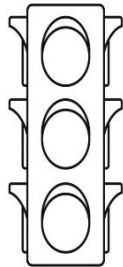

Can you explain your answer to someone else?

Choose an assessment method and draw it beside your work.

Red – not there yet

Orange – getting there

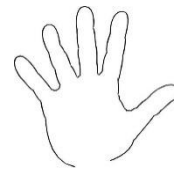

Green – got it!

1 – I struggled

2 – I found some difficult

3 – I think I'm getting it

4 – I'm doing well

5 – I have got it!

► Next step:

Do you still have your story cards from your Read, Write, Count bags? Look them out and practise telling stories.