Monday 25th May

L.I. to spell and read words using our phonics sounds

S.C. I can spell and read oy words.

We already know the oi sound.
Today we are learning that you can say oi in another way.

oy

Warm Up Game!

Say what the oy word is in each picture and try to spell it in your jotter?

Let's have a go!

Reading oy words

Read each word out loud

Draw a picture for each word and colour it in.

1. boy

2. joy

3. annoy

4. cowboy

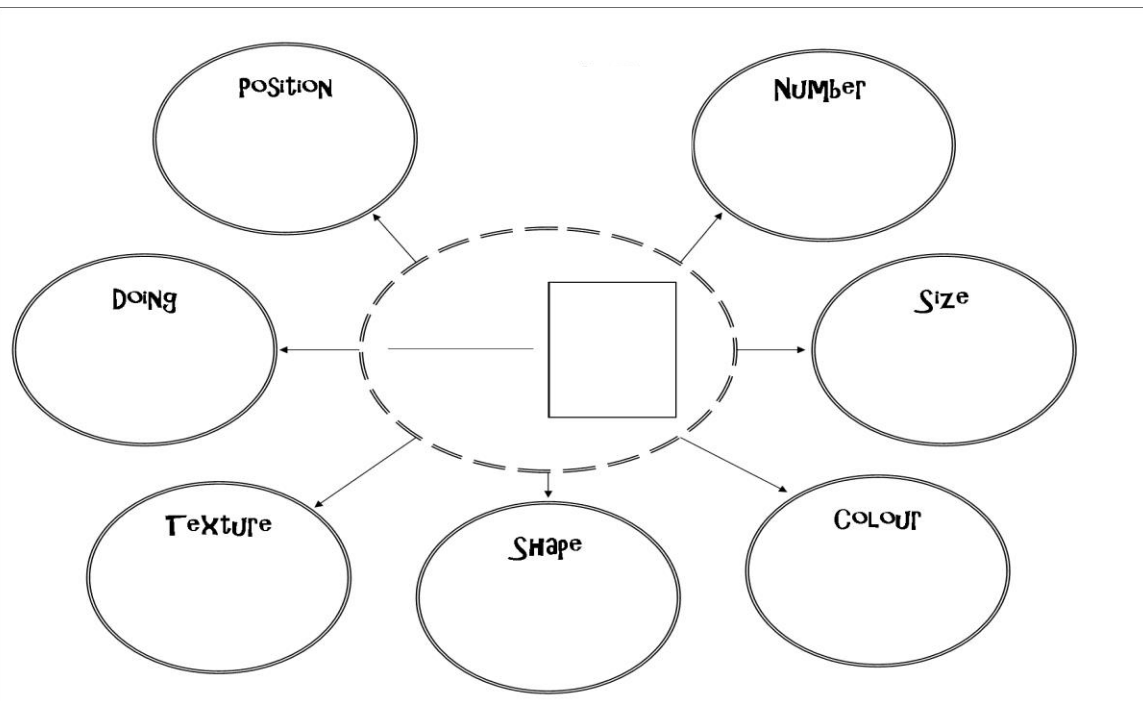

Part 2

- L.I. to write a sentence with an oy word
- S.C. I can use the descriptive bubble to make sentences more interesting.

Up Level

The boy enjoyed playing with the cowboy.

This sentence is boring. Let's up level it using the descriptive bubble!

The boy enjoyed playing with the cowboy.

First what are the nouns? (The name of things)

The boy enjoyed playing with the cowboy.

These are the things I can describe.

The small happy boy enjoyed playing with the interactive cowboy.

Now its more interesting!

Up level again!!!

I can up level it again by saying how the verb happened.

Can you find the verbs?

The small happy boy enjoyed playing with the interactive cowboy.

So I can improve it by adding an adverb. I can say how the boy played with the toy.

The small happy boy enjoyed playing noisily with the interactive cowboy.

Your Turn!

Write a sentence for each oy word.

Make sure you use your basic writing targets.

Capital letters

finger spaces

full stops

Try to up level your sentences using the descriptive bubble.

1. boy

2. joy

3. annoy

4. cowboy

Read the story aloud to an adult in your house.

Write a list of oy words and a list of oi words you find.

The Lost Toy

Dad was just boiling the kettle for tea, when his daughter, Joy, ran into the room.

"Dad!" exclaimed Joy in a loud voice, "I've lost my favourite toy rabbit, Boing!"

"Don't worry," said Dad, "We can find her! Where did you last have her?"

"I was playing shops," said Joy, "I wonder if Boing has got mixed in with the coins?"

Dad searched through the coins, but there was no sign of Boing.

"Where else have you been playing?" asked Dad.

"Well, I was digging outside in the soil," said Joy.

They walked outside.

"Can you show me where you were playing?" said Dad.

Joy pointed, but they still could not see Boing.

Suddenly, there was a loud "Oink!" It was coming from the pig pen.

"There's something wrong with Bertie!" shouted Joy and she ran over to the pen.

Dad joined Joy next to the pig pen and they peered in. They could just see a pair of bunny ears peeking out from underneath Bertie's loin.

"Oi, Bertie. You cheeky boy!" shouted Joy. "You are sitting on my favourite toy!"

Dad rescued Boing from underneath Bertie. She was a little bit muddy and moist, but luckily, she wasn't spoilt. Joy decided to give her a wash before bedtime though, which was a very good choice!
