

Snake Made From Stones

For this activity you will need to collect some stones, this could be from your back garden or when you are out on your walk.

Use the stones to make a snake shape, how long will your snake be?

You can write numbers on your stones and count them putting them in order in your snake line.

