

Make a video diary of your day / week. Share your feelings about each thing you did. Show it to a member of your family.

Make a thank you card for everyone in your family. Can you think of 3 things to thank each person for?

Learn a Beatles or Queen song and create a dance routine. Can you wear an appropriate outfit to perform in?

Find lots of small objects outside such as twigs, stones and leaves. Use these to create some transient art. Perhaps make a pattern such as a mandala or even make some family portraits. Google 'transient art' for ideas.

Make a puppet theatre from large box. Cut off the back and cut out a window in the opposite side. Put it on a table. Use toys as puppets or create your own. Write a script. It could be a show to teach younger children something or it could be a comedy show. Can you record and edit your show?

Create your own game show. Perhaps include a theme tune, host catch phrase and different games. What will the prizes be? Try it out with your family.

Create a scene from your favourite film, TV show or video game in a box. Perhaps you could use some of your household recycling.
