

Class _____ Literacy
Literacy Task 1	Literacy Task 2	Literacy Task 3
We are extending our knowledge and skills in persuasive language. Developing talk before writing Learning about 'debating' will help you to think of more ways to persuade in your writing. Watch this video- you don't need to watch all of it and it might need some extra adult explanation. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yi6lm-Sb6Vw Question- When and why might people do this? What type of jobs would people need to be good at doing this skill? Watch this next video too. Persuasive Writing for Kids: Developing Reasons https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6bbWJKlv12c	Now you have done some research in Task 1, we are going to be doing some writing. Question: Would you rather learn at home or in school? Please try and come up with 2 or more benefits for each side of the argument. Remember to give examples to make your argument even stronger. Remember you can share your work with us via the school email.	Check back over your writing to make sure it makes sense. Make sure you have included these things in your writing:
