

SPECIAL Cross curricular links

Following children's drawings showing their preferred person of interest, we would invite you to watch the Horrible Histories Tv show available on Iplayer.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/iplayer/episode/b05yt88s/horrible-histories-series-6-4-mardy-mary-queen-of-scots-special> .

The programme raises a few discussion points making links with HWB and RME.

It is important to have healthy discussion about what happened in the past, making links to life today. Obviously discussion will be at a level that is appropriate for your child.

HWB

On youtube Watch- What Was Life Like? | Episode 7: Tudors - Meet A Tudor Cook

Can you make something using an ingredient from the video.

We know getting food is trickier at this time, maybe you could use plastine, playdoh or items from your garden to pre-

Follow up tasks...

Listening

Were you listening? Try to answer these questions.

Where was Queen Mary born?

What were Mary's friends she took to France called?

How did her husband die?

Why did Tudors have to send their bread to bakers?

How were Mary Queen of Scots and Queen Elizabeth related?

When was the first flushing toilet invented?

Why was Mary arrested when she escaped to England?

How many years did Mary live in Scotland?

Expressive Arts

Create a 'Ruff'

This is a pleated collar or frill, worn in Europe, especially from the mid-16th century into the 17th century, by both men and women.

There is a video clip that shows you a simple way

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ODPmXl7ym10>

French

Find out the French for the following words

Queen

Dress

husband