

Ahoy matey, let's go on a pirate treasure hunt! Can u ask someone in your house to hide socks to find?

As a challenge see if you could match and sort the socks you find!!....

Let's find some socks!!!...

Well done now match and sort them?

Well done Boys and girls!

The Captains will be proud!

★ Let's encourage the use of positional language when finding the socks...for example putting the sock: in front, behind, under, on top, beside, or in something. When your child finds the sock encourage them to tell you where the sock was using ★ positional language.
