Try the three rows activities in Unit 2. Make sure you press the keys with the correct fingers! These are colour coded for you. Happy typing!

Problem Solving

L.I To work backwards

Watch this video to remind you of the strategy you will need:

<https://youtu.be/uJZyoTcruJk>

There are two problems for you to solve today, both you will need to use the problem solving strategy – to guess, check and improve. One is mild/spicy and the other is spicy/hot. Please complete at least 1 (or both!).

Answers will be posted just before lunch time. Good luck!

Mild/Spicy - Time to Go

Spicy/Hot - Here piggy piggy

ERVIC (Everyone reading virtually in class)

LI - to evaluate a written text.

SC – I can relate to a character in the book I am reading.

I can justify my reasons by quoting from the text.

Step 1: Read a book at home (fiction or non-fiction) for at least 30 minutes.

Step 2: Answer the following questions in your green jotter. These questions focus on your ability to evaluate a text.

Using evidence from the text, what do you think about the book? For example, did you enjoy the way the author described the actions of a character? Did you like the relationship between two characters?

Think about a big event that happened in the book. If you were the main character, how would you have reacted to this big event? Give reasons why you think this.

Have your views about anything been changed after reading the book? For instance, do you now see why the characters in the book behaved or acted the way that they did?
